WANTS PORTABLE HOUSES.

LIMA, Peru, Nov. 1—Purchase of American portable houses to solve the problem of providing cheaper, more substantial and better homes for the workers of Lima, is advocated by the newspaper El Tiempo. Interest in this type of wooden houses follows the erection here of a small portable building in which has been shown the Seattle Chamber of Commerce exhibit of products made in that city.

The articles in El Tiempo urgs the erection of groups of these houses in ection of groups of these houses in a outlying districts of the city, sugthe outlying districts of the city, suggesting plans for the ultimate purchase by the occupants on a monthly installment plan. Practically all houses ni this part of Feru, where rain sedom falls, have been built of mud or unbaked abode brick. A syndicate is now negotiating for the purchase of 400 portable houses of a more expensive type, to erect in the fashionable seaside suburb of San Miguel.
